

TRICENTIS Technology & Consulting GmbH, a young and dynamic company from Austria is among the leading providers of consulting services in the field of software quality assurance. Our product TOSCA Testsuite™, our dedication to the quality of our services and the fun with our work allow us setting new standards in software quality assurance.

To strengthen our team, we are looking for

Technical translator (m/f)

Your responsibilities:

- Translation and review of technical and marketing-oriented texts
- Development, improvement, maintenance and application of company-specific terminology and stylistic guidelines
- Tracking German and English documentation
- Supporting our corporate communication team with their daily tasks.

Our requirements:

- Relevant education in communication (preferably translation), experience in translation are of advantage
- English native speaker and very good or perfect German skills
- Basic knowledge on technology and marketing
- Taking initiatives, the ability to work in a team as well as good verbal and communication skills
- Solid IT skills in both areas of hardware and software
- Confident use of Windows operating systems and Microsoft Office
- Ability to work in a structured and accurate manner
- Flexible, solution and service oriented attitude
- Independent way of working, high motivation

What we offer:

We are looking for a female or male colleague and offer a flexible work environment and good atmosphere in a young and highly motivated team, as well as the opportunity to work with individual responsibility.

After a substantial job training we offer a long-term employment. We are constantly expanding, which allows us to offer committed colleagues a wide range of career opportunities.

Please send your written application including your resume and photo, exclusively by email to

Elisabeth Parlagi (recruiting@tricentis.com)

TRICENTIS Technology & Consulting GmbH
Leonard-Bernstein-Straße 10
1220 Wien
AUSTRIA