

Being part of the Service Level Agreements, the purpose of the Tricentis qTest product lifecycle is to help you plan or prepare your maintenance and support requirements accordingly.

1. Release and Support Phase Definition

- (I) The Standard Support Phase lasts 18 months. It starts at the general availability date of a release and enters the next phase at the end of the Standard Support Phase.
- (II) The term for the Extended Support Phase is another 18 months. This phase starts at the end of the Standard Support Phase and enters the next phase at the end-of-life date.
- (III) The End-of-Life Phase starts at the end-of-life date.

The above-mentioned phases do not apply to any “Software as a Service” based products which provide ongoing access to the latest version, provided that your subscription is active.

2. Changes to the Product Lifecycle

Subject to the agreement, Company reserves the right, at its discretion, to change this Product Lifecycle at any time based on prevailing market practices and the evolution of Company's software products.
