You are responsible for all actions taken by Users or through access credentials provided by us for the Products ("User IDs"). 3. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

3.1. Tricentis Ownership. Tricentis, its Affiliates and licensors retain all right, title and interest to the Offerings (including derivative works) and all related Intellectual Property Rights. The Offerings are licensed, not sold. The use of terms such as “purchase” or “sale” will not be interpreted to imply a transfer of ownership. Your rights to the Offerings are limited to the rights expressly granted in these Terms.

3.2. Your Ownership. You, your Affiliates and licensors retain all right, title and interest to Customer Content and all related Intellectual Property Rights. You grant to Tricentis, its Affiliates and its service providers a worldwide, limited license to use and process Customer Content during the Term solely to provide the Offerings and as expressly permitted under the Agreement. Our rights to Customer Content are limited to the rights expressly granted in these Terms.

3.3. Feedback. If you provide Feedback to Tricentis, you agree that Tricentis may use the Feedback and incorporate the Feedback into Offerings without restriction, compensation or other obligation to you.

3.4. Open-Source Software. A list of Open-Source Software made available or distributed with the Products is available on the Tricentis Support Portal or may be provided by Tricentis upon written request. Open-Source Software is licensed to you under its own license terms and those terms apply to your use of the Open-Source Software. In the event of a conflict, the Open-Source Software license terms supersede these Terms solely with respect to that Open-Source Software.

3.5. Third-Party Content. Third-Party Content is licensed to you under its own terms and those terms apply to your use of the Third-Party Content. Tricentis does not control or review Third-Party Content. You are responsible for ensuring that Third-Party Content is appropriate for your intended use and that you have the rights necessary to use the Third-Party Content.

4. ORDERING AND PAYMENT

4.1. Orders. You may purchase Offerings directly from Tricentis, its Affiliates or through a Tricentis authorized reseller. The Offerings will be made available to you on your acceptance of an Order. An Order is accepted by you when you sign the Order or when you submit an online Order. The parties agree that Customer’s signature only is sufficient to create a binding contract on any unaltered order form provided by Tricentis. All Orders are non-cancelable and non-refundable except as expressly provided in these Terms.

4.2. Reseller Orders. If you purchase through a Tricentis authorized reseller, Sections 4.4 (Fees and Payment) and 4.5 (Taxes) will not apply to that purchase and the reseller will invoice you and you will pay the reseller instead of Tricentis. If you purchase through a Tricentis authorized reseller, you agree that your order details will be as stated on the Order submitted by the reseller on your behalf. You also acknowledge and agree that the reseller is not authorized to make any changes to the Agreement or make any warranties, representations, promises or commitments on behalf of Tricentis related to the Offerings. If Tricentis provides you a refund under Sections 5.1, 5.2, 6.1, 10.5 or 11.2, Tricentis will issue the refund to the reseller.

4.3. Affiliate Orders. Your Order will be placed with the Tricentis Affiliate indicated on the Order. You may authorize your Affiliates to submit Orders under these Terms. You remain responsible for your Affiliates’ compliance with the Agreement.

4.4. Fees and Payment. Tricentis will invoice you for fees stated on the Order after accepting your Order. Fees will be due and payable thirty (30) days after the invoice date unless the Order states a different payment due date. The fees stated in an Order are for the current versions of the Offerings and you acknowledge that you are not relying on future availability of any feature or functionality of the Offerings in consideration for the fees. If you fail to pay any amount when due under the Agreement, Tricentis may, at its sole discretion, suspend the Offerings until you pay all outstanding amounts or terminate the applicable Order or the Agreement. If Tricentis accepts your credit card for payment, you agree that Tricentis may bill your credit card or other payment method for renewals or other amounts due and payable by you under the Agreement until you provide written notice to Tricentis to stop.

- 4.5. Taxes. All fees are exclusive of Taxes. You will pay or reimburse Tricentis for Taxes related to transactions under the Agreement and Tricentis will remit Taxes to the relevant taxing authorities. If you are required by applicable law to withhold and remit any amounts for payments due under the Agreement, you will inform us of the withholding amount with the Order and we will invoice you for the gross up amount so that Tricentis receives the fees due in full. Tricentis can rely on the name and address you provide to Tricentis as being the place of supply for Taxes. If you are Tax exempt, you will provide us with a copy of the exemption certificates from the relevant taxing authorities with the Order. Upon reasonable request, we will provide you documentation of payment of Taxes to the relevant taxing authorities.
- 4.6. Upgrades/Downgrades. You may upgrade your account at any time. After an upgrade, we will invoice you for the additional fees due for the remainder of the applicable Term and future auto-renewals will reflect the upgrade. You may not downgrade your account during the Term.

5. WARRANTIES

- 5.1. Product Warranty. Tricentis warrants that the Products will materially conform to the applicable Documentation during the Term. For On-Premises Products licensed on a perpetual basis, the warranty will apply only for a period of twelve (12) months from delivery of the On-Premises Products. This warranty applies only to currently supported versions of the Product licensed to you that are used in unmodified form in accordance with the Documentation and the Agreement. If you promptly notify Tricentis of a reproducible error that Tricentis determines is a breach of this warranty, Tricentis will use commercially reasonable efforts to correct the error. If Tricentis determines that it is not commercially feasible to correct the error, Tricentis may terminate the Order for the applicable Product and refund to you the amount that Tricentis received for the unused portion of the Term after the date you notified Tricentis of the error. The remedies provided in this Section are your sole and exclusive remedies for a breach of the product warranty provided in this Section.
- 5.2. Professional Services Warranty. Tricentis warrants that it will perform Professional Services under the Agreement in a professional and workmanlike manner. If you notify Tricentis of an issue that Tricentis determines is a breach of this warranty within sixty (60) days of the completion date, Tricentis will use commercially reasonable efforts to reperform the services to comply with the warranty. If Tricentis determines that it is not commercially feasible to reperform the services, Tricentis may terminate the Order for the applicable Professional Services and refund to you the amount that Tricentis received for the portion of the Professional Services that failed to conform to the warranty. The remedies provided in this Section are your sole and exclusive remedies for a breach of the professional services warranty provided in this Section.
- 5.3. Warranty Disclaimer. The express warranties set forth in this Section 5 (Warranties) are in lieu of all other warranties. Tricentis makes no warranties with respect to any Open-Source Software or Third-Party Content. To the maximum extent permitted by law, Tricentis disclaims all other warranties, whether express, implied or statutory (including any implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, title or noninfringement), and any warranties arising from usage of trade, course of dealing or course of performance. Tricentis does not warrant that the Offerings will meet your requirements or that they will be accurate or operate without interruption or error. You acknowledge and agree that you have not relied on any promise, warranty, or representation not expressly provided in this Agreement.

6. INDEMNIFICATION

- 6.1. Tricentis Indemnification. Tricentis agrees to indemnify and defend you, your Affiliates and your respective officers, directors and employees from and against any unaffiliated third-party suit or proceeding alleging that the Products infringe any patent, trademark or copyright, or misappropriate a trade secret, of that third party ("Tricentis Indemnified Claim"). Tricentis will indemnify you from the damages finally awarded against you to that third party by a court of competent jurisdiction or agreed to by Tricentis in settlement. Tricentis's obligations under this Section 6.1 apply only if you: (1) promptly notify Tricentis of the Tricentis Indemnified Claim in writing; (2) allow Tricentis sole control over the defense of the claim and any settlement negotiations; and (3) reasonably cooperate in response to Tricentis's requests for assistance. If a Product becomes, or in Tricentis's opinion is likely to become, the subject of a Tricentis Indemnified Claim, Tricentis will at its option and expense either: (A) procure the rights necessary for you to make continued use of the affected Product; (B) replace or modify the affected Product to make it non-infringing while materially retaining functionality; or (C) terminate your right to use the affected Product and, upon your certified deletion of the affected Product, refund you the amount that Tricentis received for the unused portion of the Term for the terminated Product. Tricentis's obligations under this Section 6.1 do not apply to any claim based on: (i) a combination of any Product with non-Tricentis products; (ii) any use of a Product that is not in compliance with the terms of the Agreement; (iii) continued use of an infringing version of the Product after Tricentis has provided you a non-infringing version or terminated your right to use the affected Product; (iv) any modification to a Product made by anyone other than Tricentis; (v) Customer Content; or (vi) Third-Party Content. This Section 6.1 sets forth your sole and exclusive remedy and Tricentis's entire liability for any Tricentis Indemnified Claim.

6.2. Customer Indemnification. You agree to indemnify and defend Tricentis, its Affiliates and their respective officers, directors and employees against any unaffiliated third-party suit or proceeding alleging that any Customer Content or our use of Customer Content in compliance with the Agreement infringes any patent, trademark or copyright, or misappropriates a trade secret, of that third party or arising out of your use of the Offerings in breach of the Agreement (“Customer Indemnified Claim”). You will indemnify Tricentis from the damages finally awarded against Tricentis to that third party by a court of competent jurisdiction or agreed to in settlement. Your obligations under this Section 6.2 apply only if Tricentis: (1) promptly notifies you of the Customer Indemnified Claim in writing; (2) allows you sole control over the defense of the claim and any settlement negotiations except that you may not agree to any settlement that requires Tricentis or its other customers to admit liability or subjects Tricentis or its other customers to ongoing obligations without Tricentis’s express prior written consent; and (3) reasonably cooperates in response to your requests for assistance. This Section 6.2 sets forth Tricentis’s sole and exclusive remedy and your entire liability for any Customer Indemnified Claim.

7. LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY

7.1. Limitation on Damages. Neither party nor its Affiliates are liable for any lost profits or business opportunities, loss of use, loss of data, business interruption, or any indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential damages under any theory of liability. This limitation applies regardless of whether Tricentis or you have been advised of the possibility of those damages and regardless of whether any remedy in this Agreement fails of its essential purpose.

7.2. Cap on Monetary Liability. The maximum aggregate liability of either party and its Affiliates for claims related to the Agreement will not exceed the fees paid or payable to Tricentis for the Offering that is subject of the claim in the 12 months preceding the event giving rise to the claim.

7.3. Exclusions. The limitations in Section 7 (Limitations of Liability) will not apply to: (1) either party’s obligations in Section 6 (Indemnification); (2) either party’s violation of the other party’s Intellectual Property Rights; (3) your payment obligations under Section 4.4 (Fees and Payment); (4) your violation of Section 2.3 (Restrictions); or (5) any liability that cannot be excluded under applicable law.

8. CONFIDENTIALITY

8.1. Confidential Information. “Confidential Information” means non-public information provided by one party (“Discloser”) to the other party (“Recipient”) in connection with the Agreement that is labeled confidential or proprietary or that a reasonable businessperson would consider to be proprietary or confidential due to its nature. Tricentis’s Confidential Information includes information related to the Offerings, pricing and product roadmaps. Your Confidential Information includes Customer Content. Confidential Information does not include any information that Recipient can show: (1) was rightfully known to Recipient without any obligation of confidentiality at the time of disclosure; (2) was disclosed to Recipient by a third party who had the right to make the disclosure without any confidentiality restrictions; (3) was generally available to the public at the time of disclosure through no fault of Recipient; or (4) was independently developed by Recipient without use of Discloser’s Confidential Information.

8.2. Obligations; Permitted Use and Disclosure. Recipient will protect the Discloser’s Confidential Information in the same manner as it protects its own Confidential Information of a similar nature or value, and always with at least reasonable care. Recipient may use Confidential Information of Discloser solely to exercise its rights and perform its obligations under the Agreement. Recipient may disclose Confidential Information only to its and its Affiliates’ officers, directors, employees, service providers, contractors, advisors or representatives (“Representatives”) who have a reasonable need to know the Confidential Information to perform under the Agreement and who are bound by a similar duty of confidentiality. Recipient is responsible for its Representatives compliance with this Section 8. Recipient also may disclose Confidential Information to the extent required by law or regulation, in which case Recipient will notify Discloser as soon as practicable if permitted by law or regulation. At Discloser’s request and expense, Recipient will take reasonable steps to contest and to limit the scope of any required disclosure. Recipient’s obligation to protect Confidential Information of Discloser applies during the Term and for three (3) years after the end of the Term except with respect to Confidential Information that constitutes a trade secret, which will remain subject to the confidentiality obligations for as long as it remains subject to trade secret protection under applicable law.

9. DATA PRIVACY AND INFORMATION SECURITY

9.1. Data Protection and Security. Each party will comply with its respective obligations under applicable data protection laws subject to Section 9.5. Tricentis will maintain appropriate technical and organizational measures. You are solely responsible for maintaining the security of Customer Systems.

9.2. Data Processing Addendum. If you are in the territorial scope of the General Data Protection Regulation (“GDPR”) or subject to the California Consumer Privacy Act (“CCPA”), you may sign and return the Tricentis Data Processing Addendum available at: <https://www.tricentis.com/legal-information/data-processing-addendum/> (the “Data Processing Addendum”). If signed by the parties, the Data Processing Addendum is incorporated by reference to the Agreement.

9.3. Service Data. You agree that Tricentis may analyze and use Service Data to provide features, improve the Offerings and develop new features, products and services. Service Data is not Customer Content or your Confidential Information.

9.4. Administrative Data. You agree that Tricentis may use Administrative Data to provide the Offerings, bill you for the Offerings, advise you of new Tricentis products and services, or otherwise comply with Tricentis’s contractual obligations and applicable law. Tricentis is an independent controller of Administrative Data and will process Administrative Data under the privacy statement available at: <https://www.tricentis.com/legal-information/privacy-policy/> (the “Privacy Policy”).

9.5. Customer Content and Data Obligations. You agree to obtain and maintain all rights and permissions necessary for you to transmit Customer Content to the Products, make Customer Content, Administrative Data and Service Data available to Tricentis and its service providers in connection with your use of the Offerings, and to grant us the rights to use and process Customer Content provided under these Terms. You agree not to transmit Sensitive Personal Information to the Products or otherwise make Sensitive Personal Information available to Tricentis or its service providers in connection with the use of the Offerings unless its processing is expressly supported as a feature of the applicable Product in the applicable Documentation or a written agreement between you and Tricentis.

10. TERM AND TERMINATION.

10.1. Term. The Agreement will remain in effect for the Term of all Orders accepted under the Agreement unless earlier terminated under this Section.

10.2. Renewals. The Term will automatically renew for successive twelve-month terms at the same account level and quantities of the expiring Term unless otherwise stated in the Order or either party sends notice of non-renewal or downgrade at least thirty (30) days before the end of the current Term. At least sixty (60) days before the end of the current Term, Tricentis will send a renewal notice to you or your reseller, as applicable, regarding the fees and any additional terms that apply in the renewal Term, which will become effective at the start of the renewal Term unless you or your reseller timely notify us of your intent not to renew.

10.3. Suspension. Tricentis may immediately suspend or terminate your access to the Offerings if: (1) you have not paid past-due fees; (2) Tricentis reasonably believes that you have materially breached the Agreement; or (3) Tricentis reasonably determines your use is disrupting or interfering with the security, integrity or availability of any Offerings or any third parties' use of any Offerings.

10.4. Termination at end of Term. Either party may terminate an Order effective at the end of the current Term by providing the other party at least thirty (30) days written notice before the end of the current Term.

10.5. Termination for Breach. If the other party materially breaches the Agreement and does not cure the breach within thirty (30) days of receiving written notice describing the breach from the other party, the non-breaching party may terminate the affected Orders or the Agreement immediately by written notice. Termination of the Agreement under this Section will also terminate all Orders then in effect. If you terminate under this Section for Tricentis's uncured breach, then Tricentis will refund the amount that Tricentis received for the unused portion of the Term for the terminated Offering.

10.6. Termination for Insolvency. Either party may terminate this Agreement effective immediately by written notice if the other party becomes insolvent, makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or becomes subject to control of a trustee, receiver or similar authority, or to any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding. Termination of the Agreement under this Section will also terminate all Orders then in effect.

10.7. Effect of Expiration or Termination. Upon termination or expiration of an Order, you will immediately stop using and Tricentis will stop providing the applicable Offerings. Any unpaid fees will become immediately due and payable on termination. You will not be entitled to a refund of any pre-paid fees except as provided under Sections 5.1, 5.2, 6.1, 10.5 and 11.2.

10.8. Survival. The following Sections will survive termination or expiration of this Agreement: 2.3 (Restrictions); 2.4 (Limits on Use); 3 (Intellectual Property); 4.4 (Fees and Payment); 5.3 (Warranty Disclaimer); 6 (Indemnification); 7 (Limitations of Liability); 8 (Confidentiality); 9 (Data Privacy and Information Security); 10.7 (Effect of Expiration or Termination); 10.8 (Survival) and 12 (General).

11. MODIFICATIONS.

11.1. Changes to Offerings. Our Offerings are continually evolving. We may update or modify the Offerings and the Ancillary Documents during the Term to reflect changes in laws, technology, industry practices, our business or other market factors. The Ancillary Documents applicable at any time are the current version. Tricentis may use third-party service providers to deliver the Offerings and may change or replace third-party service providers from time to time at its sole discretion. Use of third parties and any changes to Offerings will not materially reduce the level of performance, security or availability of the Offerings during the Term. If we decide to discontinue any Products, it will be according to our product lifecycle policies.

11.2. Changes to Terms. We may modify these Terms (including any Additional Terms) with notice to you as provided in Section 12.6 or by posting the modified Terms on our website. Any changes to these Terms will be effective on notice for Limited Use Licenses and effective at the start of the next renewal Term for paid Offerings unless a different effective date is stated on the notice. Your continued use of the Offerings after effectiveness of the change confirms your acceptance. If the change is effective during the current Term, is not required to comply with law, and materially and adversely impacts your use of the Offerings, then you may object to the change by providing written notice to us that describes the material impact of the change to you within thirty (30) days of the date of our notice of the change. Following notice of your objection, at our option, we may: (1) delay the effective date of the change to you until after the end of the current Term; (2) use commercially reasonable efforts to remediate the impact of the change to you; or (3) terminate the affected Orders and refund to you any fees that you have pre-paid for the unused portion of the Term.

12. GENERAL

12.1. Governing Law and Forum. Unless otherwise specified in the Order, the Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Texas without regard to principles of conflicts of law and any dispute arising out of the Agreement will be exclusively resolved in the State or Federal courts located in Texas. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods will not apply.

12.2. Arbitration. If the parties to the Agreement are located in different countries that do not have a bilateral treaty to enforce litigation, each party agrees that disputes related to this Agreement will be finally settled under the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce by one or more arbitrators appointed under the Rules. The arbitration will be final and binding and the judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction. The place of arbitration will be where the Tricentis entity specified in the Order is located and the arbitration will be conducted in English.

- 12.3. Injunctive Relief. Each party acknowledges and agrees that a breach of its obligations with respect to the other party's Confidential Information and Intellectual Property Rights may cause irreparable harm to the other party that could not be remedied by payment of damages alone and that the other party may seek injunctive relief to prevent the breach in any appropriate jurisdiction.
- 12.4. Assignment. Neither party may assign its rights or obligations under the Agreement or any Order without the prior written consent of the other party except to an Affiliate or to a successor that has acquired substantially all the business relating to the Agreement. Neither party will unreasonably withhold consent to assignment. This Agreement will bind and inure to the benefit of the parties, their respective successors and permitted assigns. Any purported assignment in violation of this Section 12.4 is void.
- 12.5. Export Compliance. You agree to comply with applicable anti-corruption and export control laws in your use of the Offerings. You represent and warrant that you are not, are not acting on behalf of, and will not export or re-export any part of the Offerings to: (1) any person who is a citizen, national, resident of, or who is controlled by, the government of any country to which the United States has prohibited export transactions; (2) any person or entity listed on the U.S. Treasury Department list of Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons or the U.S. Commerce Department Denied Persons List or Entity List; or (3) any country to which the United States government requires an export license or other governmental approval without first obtaining the license or approval. You are not subject, either directly or indirectly, to any order issued by any agency of the United States government revoking or denying, in whole or in part, your United States export privileges.
- 12.6. Notices. All notices will be in writing. The parties agree that electronic communications will satisfy applicable legal notice requirements, including that the notice be in writing. Notice will be deemed given on the next business day after the notice is sent. Tricentis will send notices to you at the email address indicated on the Order or updated through your customer account. It is your responsibility to keep your email address for notices valid and current to receive notices. You will send termination and non-renewal notices to Tricentis at renewalbilling@tricentis.com and other notices to Tricentis at legalnotices@tricentis.com.
- 12.7. Records. You agree to make available to Tricentis on request all information and records reasonably necessary to demonstrate that your use of the Offerings complies with the Agreement. For SaaS Products, you agree that Tricentis may monitor your use of the SaaS Products for compliance with applicable limits on use. If Tricentis determines your use exceeds applicable limits, Tricentis will invoice you for fees related to the excess use.

- 12.9. Severability. If part of the Agreement is held to be void, invalid or unenforceable, the rest will remain in full force and effect.
- 12.10. Entire Agreement. The Agreement as it may be modified from time to time is the entire agreement of the parties regarding your purchase and use of the Offerings. The Agreement supersedes all prior or contemporaneous communications, understandings and agreements, whether written or oral, between the parties regarding its subject matter. Any additional terms included in a purchase order or other business form provided by you will be for administrative purposes only, will have no legal effect and will not supersede, amend or supplement the terms of the Agreement. In the event of a conflict, the order of precedence will be: (1) the Order; (2) these Terms; and (3) the applicable Ancillary Document.
- 12.11. Waiver and Amendment. The waiver of a breach of any provision of the Agreement will not constitute a waiver of another provision or a later breach. Except as provided in Section 11, any modifications to the Agreement must be in writing and signed by both parties.
- 12.12. Relationship of the Parties. The parties are independent contractors. Nothing in this Agreement creates a partnership, joint venture or agency relationship. Neither party has any authority to assume or create any obligation of any kind in the name of or on behalf of the other party.
- 12.13. Force Majeure. A party's delay or failure to perform obligations under this Agreement (except for payment obligations) that is caused by conditions beyond the reasonable control of that party is not a breach of this Agreement. The time for performance will be extended for a period equal to the duration of the conditions preventing performance.
- 12.14. Counterparts and Electronic Signatures. The Agreement may be executed in counterparts that will be considered one original. Electronic signatures will have the same force and effect as handwritten signatures.
- 12.15. Construction. The words "include" and "including" mean "including but not limited to." Section headings are for convenience only and are not to be used in interpreting this Agreement.
